Indiana Charter School Board Public Hearing Schedule

The Indiana Charter School Board (ICSB) will host public hearings in communities throughout the state in September and October to collect input on proposals to open charter schools.

The public will also have the chance to submit testimony in writing during each hearing or electronically by sending comments to charter-applications@doe.in.gov. The deadline to email comments for each proposed school is October 4 at 11:59 p.m. EDT.

To review applications and collect more information, visit the ICSB website at www.doe.in.gov/idoec/icsb. See below for dates, times and locations of public hearings in individual communities.
